LIBERTY, Mo. – In the case of the City of Liberty v. Miles Hochard, the City of Liberty's Prosecutor's Office reached an agreement with Miles Hochard. In June 2019, charges were filed against Hochard for assault of a student at Liberty North High School. As part of the agreement, the defendant agrees to:

1. Not violate any city county or state laws or ordinances, including traffic laws.
2. Pay $200 for the diversion fee.
3. Complete an 8-week anger management course by June 20, 2020.
4. Stay away from the individual who filed assault charges in this case.

If all conditions of this agreement are met, the City of Liberty will dismiss the charges filed in this case.
