Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED)

Creating healthy, safe communities through well-planned environmental design.

What is CPTED? CPTED, pronounced sep-ted, helps us to create healthy, safe communities through well-planned environmental design.

“...a crime prevention philosophy based on the theory that proper design and effective use of the built environment can lead to a reduction in the fear and incidence of crime, as well as an improvement in the quality of life.” - National Crime Prevention Institute

Locks aren't the only answer: Functioning locks on doors and windows are important, but only one piece of the puzzle. Mechanical security devices can make your home feel like a fortress and decrease the quality of life in our city.

CPTED works by decreasing a criminal's ability to commit crime. It also increases the chances that a legitimate resident will see and report the crime as it occurs. CPTED goes beyond traditional security methods by naturally integrating security measures into the community.

“The proper design and effective use of the built environment will prevent crime and increase the quality of life.” - Dr. C. Ray Jeffrey

Consider These Environmental Design Tips to Help Deter Crime

Access Control: The design of an area to physically obstruct or guide access by people and vehicles. This strategy works by deterring access to potential targets of crime. If criminal behavior does occur, the access control makes it easy for legitimate residents to notice and report the crime to police.

Examples include deadbolts, alarms, window locks, fences, turnstiles and traffic signs. You can use access control by using a locking mailbox to prevent mail theft or by installing fencing that allows for visibility.

Territorial Reinforcement: The design of an area to clearly show that someone owns the property. It suggests to criminals that a person is present who may see their criminal activity and report it to police. By enacting territorial reinforcement strategies, residents are clearly stating, “This is not public property.”

Examples include landscaping, lighting, walkways, decorative fencing and signs. You can use territorial reinforcement by placing a small decorative fence around your front yard to separate it from the sidewalk.

Natural Surveillance: The design of an area to allow visibility by neighbors and other legitimate residents. Criminals are less likely to commit crimes in areas where they feel exposed to observers. In the event a crime does occur, there is also a greater chance that it will be witnessed and reported to police.

Examples include windowed stairwells, parking lots visible from the sidewalk, and security lighting. You can use natural surveillance by keeping landscaping trimmed with the “two-foot-six-foot rule.” Bushes should be trimmed lower than two feet and trees trimmed higher than six feet.

Maintenance: The basic upkeep, repair and maintenance of property can help deter crime. Neglected property can inspire mistreatment by others, while maintained property will elicit proper treatment. This strategy directly impacts the fear of crime in a community due to residents’ perceptions of responsibility and caring in the neighborhood.

Examples include the immediate removal of graffiti, landscape maintenance, weed abatement and painting worn buildings. You can use maintenance by keeping your property clean, weed-free and repaired.

Other Strategies to Consider

- Light shadowy areas and corners with bright white light.
- Illuminate doorways.
- Install deadbolts on all exterior doors using three-inch screws.
- Help prevent theft from vehicles.
- Lock your vehicle.
- Don’t leave valuables in your vehicle or in plain view.
- Park in lighted areas.
- Be observant and aware of activity and unknown persons in your neighborhoods.
- Positive interaction with neighbors is encouraged.
- Properly select and install landscaping so that you have unobstructed views of vulnerable doors and windows from the street and other properties. Use the “two-foot-six-foot rule”.
- Use front porches or stoops to create a transitional area between the street and home.
- Define property lines and private areas with planting, pavement treatments or fences that allow visibility.
- Make the street address clearly visible from the street and alley.

Post Approval Information:

After you have received administrative approval from staff, or have been granted approval through the Planning & Zoning Commission and City Council process, the following information may be helpful:

Pre-Construction Meeting: Please contact Jeremy Adams at 816-439-4535 prior to the start of construction. City Staff including the Building Official, Engineering, Fire Marshall and Planning will meet with contractors and on site management to discuss and clarify the expectations and processes from building permits to Certificate of Occupancy.

Land Disturbance Permits: City land disturbance application requirements are detailed in Section 30-23 of the Unified Development Ordinance. Please note that tree preservation and replacement requirements are detailed in Section 30-97.4 of the Unified Development Ordinance. The following items are required to be submitted in the land disturbance permit application package:

- City Land Disturbance Permit Application Form
- Copy of MDNR Land Disturbance Permit
- Copy of Land Disturbance Plans (11x17 hardcopy)
- Copy of Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plan (SWPPP)
- Permit Fee payment

Public Improvement Plans: All public improvements require a plan design by a registered engineer that has been completed according to the City of Liberty's Design Criteria and Technical Specifications. Upon approval of the public improvement plans by the City Engineer and receipt of a two-year Performance and Maintenance Bond and permit fee, the required permit may be obtained for construction.

Other Engineering Permits:

- For developments within a 100-year floodplain, a City of Liberty Floodplain Development Permit is required.
- If the project involves blasting, a City of Liberty Blasting Permit Application is required.
- For work within the City right-of-way, a City of Liberty Right-of-Way Permit is required.

Final Plat/ Lot Split: In order to proceed with recording the final plat, please submit a mylar and three quality paper copies of the final plat with all appropriate original signatures and notaries along with a copy of the plat in a format readable by AutoCAD. You may include this on a disk or e-mail the file to Mapping Technician, Cynthia Matney, at cmatney@libertymo.gov. If you have any questions about submitting the information in an electronic format, please contact Cynthia Matney at 816-439-4508.

Coordinate with staff to record CCRs, HOA documents, or storm maintenance covenants at the same time as the plat, as those covenants are required to be recorded by the property owner. All fee-in-lieu of tree preservation and parkland fees are due prior to the recording of a plat.

The plat must be recorded prior to the issuance of building permits. If the final plat results in the subdivision of land, all public improvements must be installed according to the public improvement plans, and approved by staff prior to the recording of the plat.

Final Development Plan: To proceed with building permits, submit 3 paper and 1 electronic copy to Chief Building Official, Jeremy Adams at jadams@libertymo.gov. City of Liberty has adopted the 2012 IBC and IRC. If you have any questions about building codes, please contact Jeremy Adams at 816-439-4535.

Business License: Most businesses require an occupation (business) license to operate in the City. For more information, please contact the Finance Department at 816-439-4463 or look under "Doing Business" on the City's webpage.

Expiration of Approvals: In accordance with the Unified Development Ordinance, all decisions of the City Council and staff shall sunset and become void within two years if no action is taken on the project within that time.
