This section pertains to volunteering for Animal Control ONLY. Please read each question and answer in the space provided. Attach additional sheets if needed.

1. Not every animal housed at the Liberty Animal Shelter is friendly. Many arrive very frightened, confused and/or aggressive. While volunteers are generally not permitted to handle potentially dangerous animals, tell us about any experience you have handling animals or observing their behavior. (This does not include your privately owned pets).
2. The Animal Shelter typically houses only dogs and cats, although on occasion other types of animals are impounded. Are there any species of animal that you would be uncomfortable being in close proximity to?
3. Current shelter staff and volunteers work very hard to facilitate adoptions and animal rescue from our facility. However, occasionally difficult decisions must be made and some animals are unfortunately euthanized, most often based on health/behavioral concerns. How do you feel about the necessity of euthanasia in animal shelters?
4. The City of Liberty holds its volunteers to the same standards as employees. Both are not permitted to share information about the City without prior approval from public relations. This includes but is not limited to posting requests for adoptions on threat of euthanasia and sharing information about on-going investigations. The sharing of information released by the City on its official social media outlets is allowed and encouraged. Forms of social media include but are not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Craig's List, etc. Do you understand this statement in its entirety?
